

Hester ^{can} to raise Pearl to become a respectable woman. The Scarlet Letter revolves around the hope to gain a more successful, sinless life.

The rose bush is a symbol ~~for~~ a criminal, like Hester Prynne, to be more ^{find} optimistic about the rest of their life. As she was ^{lives} ~~traveling~~ ^{walked} from the prison to the ^{words here!} ~~specific meaning!~~ market-place, that rose bush was pointed out to give her more confidence in her future; even in the ^{despite} ~~negative situation~~ ^{draw} in which she was about to pursue. ^{endure} It states in The Scarlet Letter that the red roses "... might be imagined to offer their fragrance and fragile beauty to the prisoner as he went in, and to the condemned criminal as he came forth to his doom, in token that the deep heart of Nature could pity and be kind to him."

OK - it states what? this... so what?

The theme of The Scarlet Letter is even when in the darkest of situations to always have hope. The Dalai Lama said it best when he said, "I find hope in the darkest of days, and focus in the brightest. I do not judge the universe." Hester Prynne had to "... consequences of the sin she committed. Hester hoped
